

Joash repairs the Temple.

2 Kings 12:1-15; 2 Chronicles 24:1-14

No one cleaned up the Temple anymore. The Temple was dirty. Many things inside the Temple were broken. Some important things were missing. The walls and roof needed to be repaired.

King Joash wanted to fix the Temple. He told the priests to use the money that people brought to fix the Temple.

The priests put a large box by the altar so everyone could put money in it to help fix the Temple. Whenever the box got full, the priests would empty the box. They gave the money to the men who were fixing the Temple. The men worked hard and did their best. All the people wanted the Temple to look nice again. The people wanted to use the Temple to worship God and to learn more about Him.
