

Jesus stops a funeral.

Luke 7:11-17

Jesus and his friends were walking on a road near a town. They met a group of people who were sad and crying. The people were carrying a dead boy out of the town to bury him.

One woman was very, very sad. The dead boy was her only son! Her husband had already died. Now she was the only one left in her family. Jesus looked at this woman. He felt sorry for her and told her not to cry.

Then Jesus said, "Young man, get up!" And the dead boy sat up! He was alive again! Everyone who was watching was completely amazed. They praised God because they had seen this boy come back to life.

The mother must have been glad and thankful. Her son was alive again! The news about Jesus' love and power spread everywhere!
