

Jesus enters Jerusalem.

Matthew 21:1-11; Luke 19:29-44; John 12:12-19

It was a wonderful day! Crowds of people were on their way to the Temple in Jerusalem. Jesus was going to the Temple, too. But first, Jesus asked two of His friends to bring Him a donkey. His friends found the donkey just where Jesus told them to go. After they brought the donkey to Jesus, they laid their coats over its back for Jesus to sit on as He rode into the city.

The people in the crowd heard that Jesus was coming. Some people cut branches from trees to welcome Jesus. They laid the branches on the road. Other people took off their coats and laid them on the road. People welcomed Jesus the way they would welcome a king. They sang to Jesus, "Hosanna! Hosanna! God bless the One who comes in the name of the Lord!" ("Hosanna" means "Save us!")

The people in Jerusalem heard the singing. They saw the great big crowd coming. Even more people ran to see Jesus and shout "Hosanna!" Jesus rode the little donkey up to the Temple. Jesus got off the donkey and went into the Temple. The children danced around Him, singing and shouting "Hosanna!" What an exciting day it was!
