

A snake bites Paul.

Acts 28:1-6

Paul and all the people on the ship were safe after their ship broke apart. They swam or floated on pieces of their ship to an island called Malta.

The people who lived on the island built a fire and helped take care of all the people from the ship. Paul helped to build the fire, too. Paul picked up some wood to put on the fire. When he put the wood on the fire, a snake came out of the wood and bit Paul on the hand.

The people on the island knew this snake was dangerous. They thought that the snake's bite would make Paul die. But God didn't let Paul die. The snake bite didn't hurt Paul. The people on the island were amazed.
