

David is kind to Mephibosheth.

2 Samuel 9

One day King David remembered a promise he had made to his best friend, Jonathan. They had promised each other to always be kind and to help each other's children. Jonathan had died in a war. David didn't know if any of Jonathan's family was still alive.

David found out that one of Jonathan's sons was still alive. His name was Mephibosheth. Mephibosheth had crippled feet. He could not walk very well.

David sent his helper to bring Mephibosheth to the palace. Mephibosheth was afraid! He wondered why King David wanted to see him. When Mephibosheth arrived at the palace, he bowed low before King David.

David said, "Don't be afraid, Mephibosheth. Your father and I said we would always take care of each other's families. I want you and all your family to come and live with me. You will eat your meals with me. My servants will take care of you as if you were my very own son." Mephibosheth was glad David kept his promise to be kind.
