

Jesus heals blind Bartimaeus.

Mark 10:46-52; Luke 18:35-43

A blind man named Bartimaeus sat at the town gate in Jericho. He was begging people to give him money. In Bible times, a blind person had to beg to get the money he needed for food.

One day Bartimaeus heard a large crowd coming. "Jesus of Nazareth is coming," someone told him. Bartimaeus was excited to hear that Jesus was coming. Bartimaeus called out, "Jesus! Son of David, have mercy on me!"

The people in the crowd told Bartimaeus to be quiet. But Bartimaeus wanted Jesus to hear him. He kept shouting, "Son of David, have mercy on me!" And Jesus did hear him! He told some people in the crowd to bring Bartimaeus to Him.

When the people led Bartimaeus to Jesus, Jesus asked him what he wanted. Bartimaeus said, "I want to see!" Bartimaeus was very sure that Jesus could help him. So Jesus told him to open his eyes. He would be able to see.

Instantly, Bartimaeus could see! He didn't need to beg for money anymore! Bartimaeus praised God because he could see. The whole crowd that had seen Jesus heal Bartimaeus's eyes praised God, too!
