

Paul teaches about Jesus.

Acts 28

Paul was sailing to the big city of Rome. After several stops, the boat landed near the city. Some Christians had heard Paul was coming. They came to meet him on the road. They welcomed him and went with him the rest of the way to Rome.

Finally, Paul came to Rome! Even though Paul was still a prisoner, Paul lived in a house. He was not put in jail and he did not have to wear chains. A soldier guarded him in the house.

For the next two years, Paul lived in his house.

Many people came to visit Paul. Whenever someone came to visit, Paul told them about Jesus. Many people believed the good news.

Paul's enemies had thought that by arresting Paul they were going to stop his preaching. But Paul didn't let anything stop him from telling about God's love. In Rome, Paul found many, many more people to tell about Jesus!
